

André Merlin

- Past Executive CEO of MEDGRID, a Consortium created in 2010 to develop exchanges of electricity between Europe and South Mediterranean countries.
- Past Chairmen of the Board of RTE, the French Transmission System Operator, and of ErDF, the French Distribution System Operator.
- Past President of CIGRE, the International Council on Large Electric Systems, the largest worldwide organisation for high voltage power grids.
- Past President of the Supervisory board of the Ecole Supérieure d'Electricité, highest electrical engineering school in France.
- First CEO and founder of RTE, the French Transmission System Operator Company, in 2000.
- Former Special Adviser of the European Commissioner for Energy.
- Co-founder and Past Chairman of the European Transmission System Operator Association (ETSO).
- Past President of the European Energy and Transport Forum, the Advisory Committee of the European Commission.
- Prior to the creation of the Electricity Market in France, André MERLIN got several senior positions in Electricité de France in the field of Transmission, Conventional Generation and in Research and Development.